

VIDEO CONTEST

SusCrop – ERA-NET

Cofund on Sustainable Crop Production

FACCEJPI

WHY?

To actively involve EVERYBODY from across the world to REFLECT, COMMUNICATE and INSPIRE on 'what sustainable crop production means to you?'

WHO?
Everybody?

School children and students

- Children and students (<18 years)
- Primary and secondary schools
- Individually or in a group under the supervision of a teacher /parent

Research institutes /academia

- Students and scientists (>18 years): bachelor, master, PhD, post-doc, professor, ...
- Any field or discipline studying/working at (public) research institutes and/or academia
- Individually or in a team

Farmers' everyday life

- Individual farmers or farmer-groups

Open

- Any person or group of random enthusiasts, artists (film, theatre, circus, dance, music, books, digital/installation art, ...), (landscape) architects, social media/communication workers etc.

WHAT?
HOW?

How should agriculture look like in the future?

Do you practice sustainability procedures in growing crops or ornamental plants in your environment (e.g. your garden or balcony)?

LOGIC

What does sustainability in the area of crop production mean to you?

€1000 Prizes!

WHEN?

May 18, 2022

May 2022 – May 2023

June 2023

Summer 2023

Fascination of Plants Day

SUBMIT

Images from: <https://pixabay.com/> and by Antoni Shkraba (<https://pexels.com>)

Contacts: Christian Breuer (c.breuer@fz-juelich.de) and Nikki De Clercq (nikki.declercq@ilvo.vlaanderen.be)

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No [771134].